Young Camper

Abby Dunning, 8, and a third grader this year at Appomattox Elementary School, thinks the little deer in the foreground are all right as a photo prop, but for a real pet, she prefers the kitten in her arms. Abby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dunning, was a camper this summer at Camp Easter Seal, result of a scholarship from the Junior Woman's Club. For Abby and for other boys and girls in Appomattox the club's continuing interest in Camp Easter Seal and young people means continuing help in their physical and emotional development.

Hydroelectric Pool Party at Hotel Roanoke Monday afternoon, August 18. At the banquet that evening, the 12 district winners were recognized. An "Electric Carnival," chaired by Delwyn Dyer, associate state 4-H leader at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, followed.

At breakfast the next morning, J. M. Tyree, state 4-H leader from Virginia Tech, presented a plaque to Rockbridge county for conducting the most outstanding 4-H Electric Program in 1969.

That afternoon the delegates toured the Smith Mountain hydroelectric development and had a picnic dinner at the West Central 4-H Educational Center at Smith Mountain Lake.

On Wednesday morning, Aug. 20, the county exhibit awards were presented. The exhibit prepared by the Happy Hustlers 4-H Club of the Stonewall Community won a white ribbon. Four electric demonstrations were given before the final awards luncheon.

The 1969 State 4-H Electric Achievement winner was announced at that luncheon. The winner was given an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Ill., later in the year.

The Virginia 4-H Electric Congress has a three-fold purpose: information, instruction, and recreation. The electric program, conducted by the Virginia Cooperative Extension Service, had one of the largest enrollments in the nation.

Depoe Drifters Release 1st Record

The Depoe Drifters (above) have just released their first record, "Sweet, Sweet Love" and "Soul on Fire", which was recorded in the home of David Drinkard (far right), composer of the songs and singer, and Donald Drinkard, his brother (at the drums.) H. T. Nash, Jr. (far left) plays bass guitar with Roger O'Brien, lead guitar. David is a '69 graduate of Appo High and plans to enroll in the VPI Cadet Corps in September, probably, also as a member of the Highlite-Tighties. Donald, Roger and H.T., Jr. are sophomores at AHS. DePoe records are now on sale at Appomattox Drug Co, and part of the record offerings of WWOD, WLLL, and WBRG radio stations, with more plans being made by the Drifters for additional records. The Drinkard recreation room at Vera is well equipped with recording equipment, mikes, lights and other trappings of a professional group. Most of the work of installing the equipment is done by the group with help, of course, from E.M. (Jimmy) Drinkard and Mrs. Drinkard.
